

3. PLAYER PLAYING PROCEDURES.
 - (j) Premiership teams must be promoted up one division (alternative: miss the next season); further, all qualified players from premiership teams must be promoted up one division (alternative: miss the next season). Clarification: if a premiership team disbands, the players from that team must either go up a division or miss the next season, or, if a player leaves a premiership team that player must still be promoted up a division. Penalty: any team with a member that contravenes this by-law shall lose the match and the score will stand, except the personal results of the infringing player. Under exceptional circumstances an individual player may apply to the BEBA Executive, in writing, prior to playing in the Association for a decision/ruling.
